CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1955 do will and bequeath to the underclassmen these our possessions and our especial talents and do hereby set our seal to this our last will and testament.

Article I

To our Alma Mater we leave the remaining funds from our "New Orleans" trip.

Article II

To our sponsors, Miss Ruth and Mrs. Webb, we leave, hoping they remember us not for the triflingness and stubbornness which we seem to be noted for but for the few good things that we have done.

Article III

To the Junior Class we leave the remains of the popcorn machine and our title, "The Sophisticated Seniors."

Article IV

I, Bentley, bequeath my supreme stupidity to Glenn Ray Jones in hopes he will continue to carry on as always.
I, Dorris, bequeath my snappy and alert brain to Miss Ruth, as she admires it so greatly.
I, Ralph, bequeath my length to Jimmy Riley so that he can reach the high levels that I have.
I, Sara Kathryn, leave but will be back after Berks and Tank.
I, Gary, leave my love for the movies to Jeannie D.
I, Squeaky, leave my seat on the park bench to Jim Watlington.
I, Kerry, bequeath to Joe Hughes my brain.
I, Charles, leave the preposition AT to Miss Ruth in hopes that she will enjoy using it even at the end of sentences.
I, Bill, leave my ability to daydream to anyone who gets as bored as I do in class.
I, Bobby, leave my best girls, the teachers, to anyone who can get along with them.
I, Nelson, leave the love all the teachers have for me to anyone who needs it. This is only in the interest of R. H. S.
I, Florence, leave my love for school to my little sister, Nelda.
I, Eddy, leave because my wife is home waiting for me.
I, Skippy, leave to go pay my rent.
I, Sue, leave my seat in the Senior row to any unlucky Senior next year. How about you, Glenda?
I, Buster, leave Pat anything she wants.
I, Granville, leave Vivian my love.
I, Virginia, leave my boisterous ways to Sally McCormick because I think she is entirely too quiet for her own good.
I, Emma, give half my magnitude to Ann Goddard, hoping to make us both average size.
I, Jane, leave all my flute books and artistic ability to Eddy Bush.
